

THE JACKET

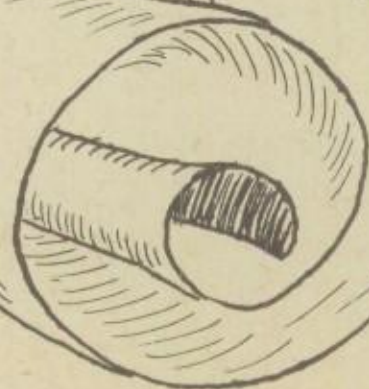

TO YOU

TO YOU, FUTURE "YELLOW JACKETS" YOUNG OR OLD.

WE, THE SENIOR CLASS OF 1945
DEDICATE THIS THE LEGEND OF
OUR CLASS AND SCHOOL
SO THAT YOU MAY AT A GLANCE SEE
ALL THE THINGS WE'VE LOVED AND LEFT BEHIND.

TO YOU NEW KNOWLEDGE WILL UNFOLD NEW HEIGHTS WILL BE ATTAINED, BUT LOYALTY TO GALENA
HIGH WILL ALWAYS BE THE SAME
WE LEAVE YOU NOW FOR WORDS CAN NOT EXPRESS OUR HOPES AND DREAMS
FOR FUTURE JACKET HAPPINESS

ADMINISTRATION

TO THE ANNUAL STAFF:

Since the High School has not had an annual for the past two years the school board and I are especially grateful to you and your sponsor, Mrs. W. A. Thomas, for your interest in this project and the work you have done in producing such an excellent annual.

TO THE SENIORS:

It is my hope that in education so far you have acquired the attributes of faith, hope and charity. Faith in God and your fellowman, hope of a better world to follow and charity toward your neighbors. If you have acquired these virtues all other things will be added unto you.

Sincerely,

WALTON HINDS

Superintendent of Schools

I would like to take this opportunity to express my thanks to the student body of Galena Park High School for their splendid attitude shown through this school year. I would also like to thank Mrs. Thomas, and the annual staff for their time given in making this annual a success.

HAROLD DEMENT

As a former sponsor of The Jacket, I wish to congratulate the staff of the 1945 publication on this good piece of work. I am sure every high school student will treasure this record of school life.

CLASS WILL

The Senior Class, being of unsound mind, does hereby leave this last will and testament, as a lasting depression plotted propagation by the undersigned, to the members included.

Ava Anderson wills to Mamie Lee Abbott her front seat in room 207. Orville Armstrong leaves his corny jokes to Glynn St. Clair, that junior who has plenty of his own. Ray Brandon leaves his mechanical ability to Harold Cockran, who is a whiz himself. Lois Brinkley bequeaths her charm for the Navy to Lavon Carson, who is progressing nicely. Bill Burgess leaves his ability to get along with Miss Davis to anyone who is foolish enough to think that he does.

To Beth Brunson, Margaret Burke leaves her charming giggle. Charles Ethridge wills his tackle ability to Bobby Lanier. Robert Dunn leaves his air of a politician to Owen Free—? To those underclassmen who appreciate headaches, Betty Clifford leaves her ability to keep books. Helen Clouse bequeaths her license to operate an Information Bureau to Mazine Curtis.

Gail Farmer wills her last-minute dashes to homeroom to all tardy juniors. Carol Henry leaves her secret about dark beauty to Mary Jane Scarboro, who isn't bad looking at all. Harold Henson wills his musical talent to Keith Bauman. Wanda Huffman leaves her blond hair to Ann Guy, who isn't exactly a brunette. To all those unsuspecting Sophomores, Patsey Johnson leaves her good will. Loretta Lemon leaves her secret to "How to Make Friends" to all Juniors who'll need it next year.

Verna Miller leaves her—no. She'll take it all, she says. Modene Parish leaves her likeable, quiet ways to Charlotte Hutton, who already has nice ones of her own. Dorothy Parker leaves her love for the C. A. P. to Ann Broome. To H. C. Parker, Alfred Reynolds leaves his lung power for loud howls. L. B. Sanders wills his popularity to Alton Newman, who is not a wall flower. Joyce Singleton leaves her smile to Jo Dement. To Shirley Hutton, Mary Louise Stout leaves her sweet ways. Jean Moore leaves her lease on locker No. 99 to anyone who has enough nerve to open the door. Alvin "Butch" Thrash leaves—, much to the sorrow of all the high school girls.

Doris Tynes leaves, period. Edith Welfl leaves her quiet personality to Ruth Harbaugh. Robert Whitney wills his good grades in Geometry to those who'll have the nerve to try it next year. Kenneth Yancey leaves his shoulders to Billy Golden. Johnnie Ziober leaves his way with the girls to "Carlos" Gibbons, who seems to be doing all right. Wallace Ryne leaves his curly locks to the football team. Aline Acker leaves her likeable nature to Lettie Pearl Hanson. To Ouida Parish, Billie Jo Womack leaves Bobby Lanier. Jo Stephens leaves behind her all the friends that she has made. Eugenia Weisinger leaves her perfect conduct as an example for the lowly freshmen. Jerry Murphy leaves her vig, vigor, and vitality to Dorothy Beaver, Bobby Stanley, and "Bo" Bailess, to be divided equally because of excess.

CLASS PROPHECY

As I gaze into my crystal ball, it is the year of 1955. I see Betty Clifford behind a desk, an executive of a large concern. She is conferring with Gail Farmer who designs the exclusive clothes their firm produces. A smartly dressed customer is Wanda Lee Huffman, private secretary to J. P. Morgan. J. P. has just had a conference with those famous engineers, William Burgess, aeronautical engineer, L. B. Sanders, electrical engineer, Alvin Thrash, geologist, and Charles Ethridge, oil tycoon. They are all on their way to their exclusive bachelor club to meet Billy Frank Pyburn, that internationally known artist. Pat Johnson, scoop reporter, has flashed the news of the return from Europe of the Superintendent of the Mayo Clinic and winner of the Nobel Prize for medicine, Dr. Jean Moore. Senator Robert Dunn is flooded with pleas from the public to run for president. Margaret Burke and her six children entertaining Carol Henry, Indian princess of Oklahoma. Is that, yes, Lois Brinkley, wife of the Admiral of the United States Navy. Johnnie Ziober, football coach of Wharton High School, meets his old friend Harold Henson, football coach of Yale University, at the annual football coaches' convention in Chicago. I see Edith Welfl, a Catholic Nun at St. Mary's in Dallas. Orville Armstrong, Hollywood comedian, presents his own radio show, sponsored by Pepsodent, with glamorous Alline Acker, guest star. Verna Miller is stewardess on the Trans-Atlantic Rocket Plane piloted by Dorothy Parker. I see Eugenia Weisinger, bookkeeper, and Loretta Lemon, secretary to Brown and Root, Inc. Who is that! It is Alfred Reynolds, seaman first class, with a girl in every port, that girl in Galena is Mary Louise Stout. Helen Clouse behind the information desk at Macy's Department Store. The little brunette beauty operator is Modene Parish. That mechanical wizard, Ray Brandon, is an assistant to Professor Einstein. That little blonde housewife in the ruffled apron is Ava Anderson. The President of the Women's Missionary Society, it is—Jo Stephens! That Casanova, it's Wallace Ryan! Robert Whitney is a commercial artist for Harper's Bazaar. That housewife baking bread is Doris Tynes. Joyce Singleton is that stenographer with the engagement ring. Foreign Correspondent Billie Jo Womack is flashing the latest news from Europe. I see—Jerry Murphy, general manager of the Midway Theater.

J O K E S

I woke to look upon a face
Silent, white and cold.
Oh, friend, the agony I felt
Can never half be told.
We'd lived together but a year;
Too soon it seemed, to see
Those gentle hands outstretched and still
That toiled so much for me!
My awakening thoughts have been of one
Who now to sleep had dropped.
'Twas hard to realize, oh, friends,
My dollar watch had stopped.

Kenneth: Meet me at the Rice Hotel at eight.
Carol: The Rice Hotel? . . . Say, that's a nice place.
Kenneth: Yeah, and it's close to where we are going, too.

Teacher (to 7-year-old): So you have broken off a tooth, have you? How did you do it?
Seven-Year-Old: Shifting gears on a lollipop.

★ ★

Chas. E.: What model is your car?
Johnnie: It's not a model; it's a horrible example.

★ ★

Miss Davis: Give me a well known date in Roman history.
The Suction Kid: Anthony's, with Cleopatra.

★ ★

Melvin: "Everything seems to be brighter after I've been with you."
Barbetta: "It should; you never go home until morning."

Girls can keep secrets just as well as boys only it takes more of them to do it.

Gail: "Well, I finally passed trig."
Betty C.: "Honestly?"
Gail: "Don't be so inquisitive."

★ ★

Miss Davis: "In what battle was General Custer killed?"
Bill Burgess: "His last battle."

★ ★

Mrs. Moore: "Jean, I've been thinking of retiring next year and letting you take over the business."
Betty Jean: "Why do that, Mother? Why not run it a few more years and we'll both retire?"

★ ★

Miss Hanna: "I'll now show you a frog that I dissected this morning." (Opens bundle revealing two sandwiches.)
Miss Hanna: "That's funny. I was sure I ate my lunch today."

You can tell a freshman by the way he stares;
You can tell a sophomore by the way he combs his hair;
You can tell a junior by the way he struts;
You can tell a senior, but you can't tell him much.

★ ★

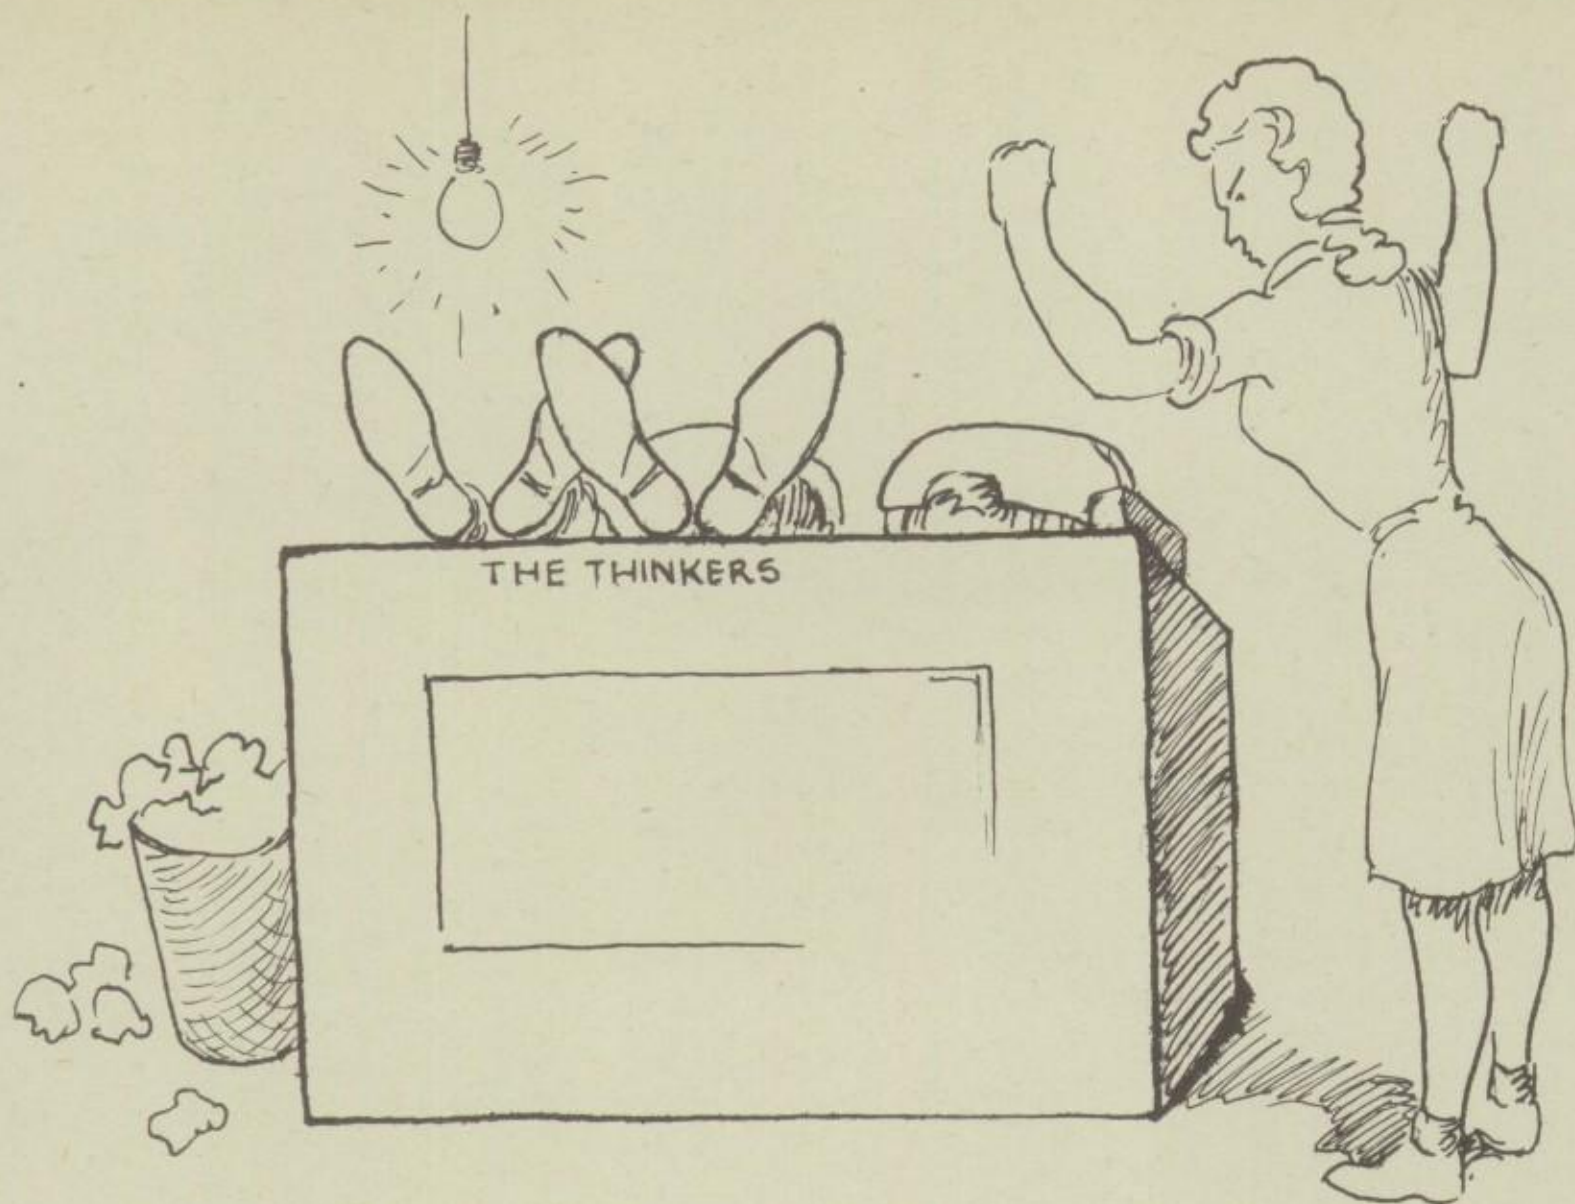

Miss Todd: Will you love me when my hair is gray?
Mr. Gogel: Why not? Haven't I stuck with you through brown, red, black and blonde?

★ ★

Orville: "I'm taking part in a battle of wits tonight."
Jerry: "How brave of you to go unarmed"
